

FOURTH ANNOUNCEMENT

Welcome

Welcome to the XVI Latin American Conference on the Applications of the Mössbauer Effect (LACAME), a biennial Conference that has been held since 1988. This XVI LACAME will be held in Santiago, Chile, from November 18th to 23rd, 2018.

Deadlines

We want to remind you that the deadline for Abstract Submission is until September 7th, and the deadline for early bird rates is until September 10th.

Abstract Submission

To get more information about the author's guidelines for paper submission, please visit LACAME website. The authors are kindly requested to follow the guidelines for abstracts submission. Abstracts must be submitted in English with a maximum of 300 words, and you must follow the Abstract Template. The organizing committee recommends that the authors submit their abstracts as early as possible to avoid the last-minute rush and system congestion.

Registration

The registration fee covers attendance to all sessions of the conference, welcome cocktail, coffee breaks, conference excursion, conference material, the abstracts book, and certificate of participation. The registration fee for students includes attendance to the International School (limited capacity. Therefore, early application is encouraged). The accompanying person registration covers, welcome cocktail, coffee breaks and conference excursion.

Registration Fee (US$)	Early	Late

Scholarship for students

For this LACAME 2018 congress we will be offering a scholarship to 10 students. This scholarship will cover the registration fee fully, giving students access to all sessions of the conference, excursion and lunches.

The conditions to participate for this scholarship are:

- Attendance to International School on Sunday, November 18th.
- Participate for at least 80 % of the conference.
- Students of undergraduate degree and postgraduate degree can participate.

To apply for this scholarship you must submit your abstract and send us a mail to lacame2018@usach.cl with your Certificate of Registered Student Status and a letter telling us why your work should be displayed during this congress.

You have until September 7th to submit your work.
